ARBOR VITAE BOY SLAIN IN FRANCE

Rhinelanders friends of the Gehrke family of Arbor Vitae will be sorry to read the following from the last issue of the Minocqua Times:

"Washington, D. C., April 6, 1918
"To William Gehrke,
Arbor Vitae, Wis.
"Deeply regret to inform you that Private Emil H. Gehrke, 82 Marine, was killed in action April 1. No particulars received. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy in your bereavement.

"Geo. Barnett,
Major General Commanding."
Above is the telegram received at the Gehrke home in Arbor Vitae, Saturday, April 6, notifying the household of the death of their son and brother.

Emil Henry Gehrke, age 22 years and 9 months, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gehrke Sr. He enlisted with Company 75 of the Marine Corps, May 2, 1917, and was transferred to Company 82 of the Marine Corps in September, departing for "Somewhere in France," Oct. 20. A father and mother, six brothers, Richard, Otto, George, Rudolph, William and Walter, and three sisters, Mrs. Jno. Gibke of Scofield, Mrs. Fred Block of Wausau and Mrs. Alfred Hagstrom of Ironwood survive.

MEETS DEATH IN CANADIAN SERVICE

Fred Hunsberger of Weyerhaeuser, son of Andrew Hunsberger, a former resident of Rhinelander, is dead from wounds received on the battlefields of France. His name appeared in the casualty list of the Canadian forces Monday.

The young man enlisted in the Canadian army over one year ago, it is said. It is with sincere regret that friends in this city learn of this death.

"JACK" INVESTS $1000 IN BONDS

A. E. Weesner, who is captain of the Liberty Bond solicitors in the fourth ward, feels justly proud of the fact that his ward holds the record in the amount of bond sales. Mr. Weesner himself worked like a Trojan to help bring about this result. He met with quite a surprise when a "lumberjack," who makes his headquarters at a hotel in the fourth ward, voluntarily subscribed to one thousand dollars worth of bonds. This man's name had been overlooked by the rating committee and was not on any list.

There is nothing wrong with this brand of patriotism. The money represented a good portion of the woodsman's savings. He said that he was glad to have a chance to loan it to Uncle Sam, especially when it was going to help win the war.

SAVE YOUR JUNK FOR RED CROSS

If you have anything in the line of old rubbers, rags, metal and paper about your premises save it for the Red Cross.

The Boy Scouts have volunteered to collect this junk and it will be prepared by them for shipment to market.

NO ARBOR DAY ANNUAL

Arbor and Bird Day falls on the last Friday in May, which is May 31. The Arbor Day annual, which has been issued for many years, will not be sent out this year, as it was discontinued by the legislature in 1917. Schools and other organizations which observe the day are expected to use the annuals of former years for suggestions.

WILL NOT BUILD P. O. THIS YEAR

Secretary of Treasury McAdoo has made it final. Rhinelander is not to have a new postoffice building this year and probably not for several years to come.

Last Saturday Mr. McAdoo brought six Wisconsin government building projects to a standstill. He sent to congress a communication withdrawing estimates which he had submitted previously of appropriations necessary to continue or to complete work on public buildings in Wisconsin and other states during the fiscal year which will begin on July 1 next.

This action of the secretary of the treasury means that the appropriations which were to have been included in the Sundry civil appropriations bill would be omitted.

Secretary McAdoo bases his action on the necessity of conserving all resources to win the war, due to unprecedented demands which the war is making upon the national resources.

He adds that the postponement of building operations "has deferred the necessity for obtaining further appropriations in those cases coming within the year."

The proposed Wisconsin appropriations that are withdrawn by Secretary McAdoo follows: Madison, continuation of work on post office and custom house $200,000; Mineral Point, completion $35,000; Oconto, completion, $27,000; Rhinelander, completion, $51,000; Ripon, completion, $64,000; Tomah, completion, $26,500.

COMPANY L BOYS LIKE FRANCE

Friday morning last a big batch of mail was received by relatives and friends from the boys of Company L in France. This was the first letter mail from the company since their arrival on the other side. The letters were written at different times within a period of ten days, but must have all been mailed at one time, as one girl Friday received no less than six letters from her brother.

According to the general tone of the letters the boys are in good health and spirits and apparently like the country. From reading between the lines it would be taken that some of the company are afflicted with homesickness. It is only natural that this malady should prevail among them at this time.

Many express the wish to be in action and declare the sooner they can get a crack at the Kaiser the better it will please them. They speak in glowing terms of the French people and the hospitality which is extended them on all sides. A few letters complain of the high prices of the French shops, intimating that the tendency is to make the American soldiers pay well for things they buy.

NORTH CRANDON HAS BIG FIRE

North Crandon's business section was partially wiped out by fire Sunday. The cause of the blaze is unknown. It is intimated here that it may have been the work of incendiaries.

Among those who suffered losses was Wm. Lord, who was formerly in the saloon business in Rhinelander. His pool room and store were destroyed.

Editor Anderson of the Northern Citizen, lost his office. The postoffice and a barber shop were also consumed. North Crandon has no fire protection and it was with difficulty that the residents saved the entire village from destruction. Water brigades and other antiquated methods of fighting the flames were employed.

Since You Went Away

Here is a poem that will find an echo in many a heart throughout America. The spirit that breathes through it is typical of our brave people "over here," who work and wait and pray for the boys who are "over there."

Since you went away, every gay sailor lad,
Every khaki-clad soldier I see,
Has a place in my heart, and a share in my thoughts
And belongs, just a little, to me.
He's a comrade of yours, and is bearing his share
Of the burden that rests upon you;
Both are doing the work that a nation has set
For its glorious manhood to do.

Since you went away, I have entered within
A sisterhood—mystic and great—
Of women who've learned the great lesson, to give
And are learning another, to wait.
But I strive, like the rest, not to doubt or to fear;
To murmur, or sigh, or complain,
But to trust in His might, and to know, by His grace,
That your sacrifice cannot be vain.

Since you went away, every fold of the flag
Has a message that's tender and true;
It has always meant liberty, freedom, and right;
It now means my country—and you.
Your honor is part of the deep azure field,
Your courage of each crimson bar,
And the soul of you, shining, resplendent and clear,
Is a part of each beautiful star.

—Allison Brown.

BOND SALE "OVER TOP" WITH FLYING COLORS.

The Third Liberty Loan Bond drive in Rhinelander and Oneida county has proved a success far beyond the most sanguine expectations of the campaign committee. Up to noon today Oneida county had over subscribed its quota by nearly $60,000. The exact amount subscribed, according to the report in the possession of Judge Charles F. Smith Jr., city chairman, is $306,350.

Among the wards of the city, the fourth with A. E. Weesner captain, leads with a subscription of $18,650. The fifth ward captained by H. L. Reeves is a close second with $17,300. The sixth ward, Ed. Boyce, captain, is in third place with $15,500. Further subscriptions before the final report is made may change the positions of these wards. There is considerable friendly rivalry among the captains.

Minocqua is in first place among the towns of the county, reporting a subscription of $15,300. Woodruff comes second with $9,500 and Pelican is third with $9,000.

"Oneida has gone over the top with colors flying," said Judge Smith today. "I doubt if there is another county of this size in Wisconsin that has made as good a showing. The subscription now has attained over the three hundred thousand mark and this amount will be largely increased before the campaign closes. The people of Rhinelander and Oneida county displayed more enthusiasm and responded more liberally than in any drive previously held here. Their patriotic spirit is to be commended."

ALL REACHING 21 REGISTER JUNE 5

Every young man in Oneida county who has attained the age of twenty-one years since June 5, 1917, will be expected to register here for war service on June 5 next, according to word received by the local exemption board today from the war department.

Formal notification to the local board of the plans of the war department were received in advance of the passage of the law requiring a second registration, but with a definite understanding that the statute will be enacted.

The board was instructed to prepare for the registration in the identical manner followed last year in making ready for the first general registration of men between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one. It is proposed to have the young men who attained their majority since June 5, 1917, register in the precincts where they reside, in accordance with the plan followed last year.

In accordance with these instructions the election officials of the wards in the city of Rhinelander will be notified to make arrangements to open the polls on the appointed day in June for the registration of the twenty-one-year-old men of this city.

MANY PRESENT AT FLAG UNFURLING

Over six hundred people witnessed the unfurling of the large service flag at St. Mary's church Sunday evening. The ceremony, which marked the raising of the flag, was both beautiful and highly inspiring in its patriotic order.

The program consisted of special music, vocal solos by Miss Alice Schleismann and a very appropriate address by Rev. Father Didier. Children also participated in the service.

The flag contains sixty-six stars, which are arranged in the form of a cross. In the center of the cross is a large red star, which is dedicated to Rev. Father Beaudette, former pastor of the church, now an army chaplain in France. The flag was conveyed into the church by boys and girls, who are brothers and sisters of the young men of the congregation now in service. It was unfurled in the front of the church, on the left side, and opposite it was placed the stars and stripes.

Father Didier, in his address, paid an eloquent tribute to the boys of the church, who have gone to fight for their country. He is an able speaker and his address made a deep impression.

"My Country 'Tis Of Thee" and "The Star Spangled Banner" were sung by the congregation. At the close of the service Miss Schleismann sang "Keep The Home Fires Burning."

DIRECTS TOMAHAWK BAND

E. K. Rick has been selected as director of the Tomahawk Band. Mr. Rick will conduct rehearsals each Tuesday night. He is rated as one of the best band directors in this part of the state and the Tomahawk band is to be congratulated on securing his services.

BUSY TIMES AT ASHLAND

Ashland is now busy making arrangements to house between 1,000 and 1,500 workers from the Du Pont Powder works at Barksdale, who are to board here during the summer. Frank G. Asbach is chairman of the committee in charge of the housing question, and is compiling a list of available rooms, furnished and unfurnished.

NEW SUBSTITUTE CLERK

R. V. Rouser, of the Jewell Music Store, is the new substitute clerk at the postoffice. He fills the vacancy caused by John Wild's promotion to clerk.

BARSTOW WILL GO TO ENGLAND

Secretary E. O. Barstow, of the Rhinelander Advancement association, will depart sometime between May 15 and June 1 for somewhere in England to engage in army Y. M. C. A. work. There is a crying need for men in this work and Mr. Barstow has offered his services for the duration of the war. He will be in charge of a Y. M. C. A. hut, but has no idea in what part of England he will be located.

A large number of American soldiers are being trained in England, it is reported. The army Y. M. C. A. is extensively established in that country.

CONCERT NETS $163

The exact amount netted for the Red Cross at the benefit concert given by the Rhinelander City Band was $163.85. This amount was turned over by the band officials to the local Red Cross chapter.

SAY HE SPREAD FALSE REPORTS

Carl Herman Clarke was taken into custody Saturday forenoon on telegraphic instructions from the department of justice at Madison. The charge to be filed against Clarke is not known, but it will probably be the malicious spreading of false reports, tending to discourage the successful prosecution of the war.

Among other things it is alleged that Clarke made the statement that he was in the Record-Herald office at 6:30 o'clock Thursday night when a dispatch, which he claimed he himself read, was received from the Associated Press announcing that "Company G has been wiped out."

The Record-Herald office was not open at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening and no such dispatch has ever been received.

Clarke was formerly a soldier in the German army and carries a discharge card from the service. He has a wife, Elsie, living in Milwaukee.—Merrill Herald.

IMPOSES LIBERTY BOND "SENTENCE"

Judge Charles F. Smith Jr., of municipal court, "punishes" petty offenders in his court by "sentencing" them to buy a Liberty Bond. Today a man charged with violating certain minor provisions of the fish and game law, was arraigned in court. It was not an aggravated case and rather than fine the offender Judge Smith informed him that if he would purchase a fifty dollar Liberty Bond the charge would be dismissed. This the man gladly consented to do and left the court room smiling.

W. D. HARRIGAN SICK

W. D. Harrigan of Fulton, Ala., a former resident of Rhinelander, is ill in a Chicago hospital. Dr. T. B. McIndoe called on him a few days ago and found him improving. Mr. Harrigan's host of old time friends here hope for his early recovery.

MEETING APRIL 15th, 1918

The last meeting of the old council was held Monday evening. A few bills were allowed to clean up the year's business.

The treasurer's salary was increased from $1,000 to $1,200 per year to take effect May 1st; the street commissioner's salary was changed from $3.60 per day to $3.50.

ACCUSED OF THEFT

Charged with the theft of an overcoat from Frank Miles, the well known livery man, John Dillon is in the county jail awaiting a hearing. Dillon is a woodsman.

PATRIOTIC MEETING AT ARMORY, WEDNESDAY NIGHT, APRIL 24.

MR. WHALEN OF MADISON WILL SPEAK.

WRITE LONG LETTERS SAYS GENERAL PERSHING

General Pershing calls upon everyone who knows a soldier in France to write to him. Mothers, fathers, wives, brothers, sisters, cousins, and friends are all urged to send letters, not merely occasionally but frequently. Other officers, Red Cross workers, everyone who has visited France, as well as the men themselves, back up General Pershing in that request. The letter from home is the brightest thing in the life of the soldier "over there." This is General Pershing's message directly to the women of America:

"Any woman who has a husband, brother, sweetheart, or relative in foreign service, should write, write, write, long cheerful letters telling everything that happens in the old home town! The men here are hungry for news and the things which seem like trivial happenings at home will be of the greatest interest to the men. The order which I send to the women of America is to work and write."

This message should appeal to all of the people in Wisconsin to whom it is repeated by the State Council of Defense.

It isn't the women alone who should write, however. American soldiers abroad are mostly quite young and healthy, and because they are they like to hear from friends and relatives of their own sex quite as much and as often as from women folks.

All who do write should be careful in addressing letters. There has been much complaint that mail fails to reach men in France. John Clark, American postal agent in France, says much of the fault lies with the people at home for insufficient or carelessly written addresses. When writing to a soldier says the postal department, give him his full name, like James Franklin Smith. Don't address him as J. F. Smith—there may be a hundred J. F. Smiths in the army. Nor is James F. Smith sufficient—there might be a dozen of them.

Don't call a soldier "Mister" either. There are no "misters" in the army. Each has a title from Private up to General, so give the title. And always write the address in ink.

EVERYBODY WILL HAVE TO LABOR

Plans On Foot To Insure All
Doing Some Useful
Work

Some decided efforts are to be made in this state to prevent idleness on the part of anyone this summer and a close tally is to be kept upon men able to work who are not performing any labor of real value to the community. In many counties of the state this question has been looked after quite successfully by the councils of defense and a large number of men in the communities who only worked a part of the time or were inclined to idleness were induced by moral suasion to give all of their time to labor. The scarcity of labor is such in many of the small towns that everybody is doing all that is possible to aid in the situation and many retired farmers who, up to this year, have done little in many years in the way of farm work, are this year planning to aid on their own farms, and if they are working the farms with some one, to take compensation under the share arrangement for their labor.

As a matter of fact, the farms, however, are better off for labor than are many other industries, and more attention is being given the farm—as it should be, because agricultural production is vital to the nation—than is being given other industries.

The County Councils of Defense generally subscribe to the idea that the nation should at least enroll all the people of the nation and be prepared to take steps to see that every body is compelled to do some useful work. It is claimed that it believes this step should be taken as preliminary step to draft for various kinds of labor if this is found to be eventually necessary. The councils of defense are appreciating this need which may come in the labor line more than most citizens for the reason that to them come the calls for assistance in solving the labor problems which are facing the community. To meet the situation in Wisconsin it may be that some legislation will be asked of the next legislature and one of the questions which will be taken up at the convention which will be held just before the legislature will be as to whether any legislature shall be asked from the next legislature on the subject.

There was some talk of asking for legislation from the special session which would allow the enrollment of men not under the war draft for any purpose for which the enrollment of men not under the war draft for any purpose for which the state officials might think they were fitted and the calling on these men to do work which seemed necessary. This legislation was advocated more with the idea of meeting the agricultural needs of the state than any other, but council of defense members say that the plan if carried out might aid in finding men for all classes of work and that at least the enrollment could do no harm. It would give, it is said, a census, which would show at least where there were unemployed men who could be obtained for work if they were needed.

Farmers, Attention!

The Government Is Begging You to Raise Wheat

Wheat is very scarce still, but in order that we may send more flour to our Allies most of the meatless days have been cut out, so we can eat meat instead of wheat. Some varieties of wheat do not do well in this climate, but a number of Oneida county farmers have successfully raised wheat year after year.

We plan to have our flour mill in operation before fall, so there will be a sure market here

This appeal is not merely to our stockholders, but to every patriotic land owner in Oneida county. We have arranged with MR. JUDAY to handle all orders for seed at the lowest price obtainable, and we hope to secure orders for a carload. Please place your orders at once.

The committee for the Liberty Loan drive for the town of Cassian, were Ira Smith, Chairman, J. P. Jensen, A. K. Tresness, Frank Southerland, August Ossman, E. Webster and H. J. Barriek. All had very good success.

Charlie Mentink has employment at Pioneer Farms for the summer.

An auxiliary to the Red Cross Chapter of Rhinelander was organized at Cassian Sunday with a membership of about fifty with the following officers: Chairman, Mrs. Ira Smith; Treasurer, Mrs. Belle Parent; Secretary, Mrs. Nina L. West. The members will be prepared to do all kinds of work and will meet Thursday of each week at two o'clock at the hall.

The patriotic rally given by the people of Cassian Sunday to start the third Liberty Loan drive was well attended. The program was opened by singing "America" by the audience after which, recitations, reading and singing by the school children were rendered. Following the program, A. O'Melia of Rhinelander addressed the people, impressing upon their minds the necessity of winning the war. The quota for Cassian in the Liberty Loan is twelve hundred; there is thirty-six hundred subscribed to date and one of the committee to report as yet. The people of Cassian wish to thank all who took part in the rally making it a success.

Those from Rhinelander who attended the rally were A. J. O'Melia

DOCTORS GO TO WAR

The late government report gives the number of physicians in Wisconsin as 2,803. The same authority states that of this number 481, or 17.2 per cent, have been recommended by the surgeon general for commissions in the medical reserve corps.

EGG HARVEST ON

The housewives of Wisconsin are in the midst of egg harvest.

Advised that fully one-half of the yearly egg crop is produced in the months of March, April, May and June, they are "preserving" their supplies for use in October, November, December and January, when the "egg flow is slow" and the market price is high.

While many different ways of storing are allowed, the use of water and lime solution are the two which have the weight of official approval.

The College of Agriculture, at Madison, has just published a four-page circular describing both methods, and housewives in every corner of the state are applying for copies to aid them in supplying their families at low cost, an abundant supply of fresh "hen fruit."

FISHING SEASON IN WISCONSIN

(By S. J. Gwidt, Conservation Warden)

In addition to the open season now provided by law any person, who is a resident of the state of Wisconsin may catch fish except large and small mouth black bass, muskellunge, and sturgeon, from any of the waters of this state by means of hook and line from May 1st, 1918, to May 20th, 1918, both inclusive, subject to the following restrictions:

(A) The quantity or amount of fish permitted or allowed to be so taken shall not exceed 10 lbs, round weight, in any one day, except that two fish of any weight above legal size may be so taken.

(B) No fish taken under the provisions of this act shall be shipped, sold, or caused to be shipped, sold or bartered.

(C) No fish shall be taken by any method, by any means, (except hook and line) or under any conditions, or of length now provided by law for the taking, capturing or killing of fish during the open season, there on.

(D) Violations of the provisions of this act shall be punished in the manner now provided by law for like offenses.

Feb. 20/21. No fish of any variety shall be taken in any manner within five hundred feet below any fishway, lock or dam.

Sec. 20/22. Nor shall any person use a spear for the purpose of taking, capturing or killing any rough fish at any time in non-navigable waters containing trout or during the closed season for trout in navigable waters, containing trout, or in the closed season in any other inland waters.

Trout season opens May 1, to Aug. 31. Limit 25 each day; size 7 inch long.

Following is a list of fish that may be taken with hook and line all year in Oneida county: strawberry bass, calico bass, silver bass, crappies, no limit and of any size; bullheads, 30 lbs, each day, any size; perch, no limit, any size; sunfish, roach, no limit, any size.

The following are classed rough fish: chubs, dace, suckers, carp, red horse, sheepshead, celpout, dogfish, garfish, buffalo fish and lawyers which can be taken by hook and line all year.

Muskrat trapping season closes April 20. All information leading to violations, strictly confidential.

Cyclones and Tornadoes.
The so-called "cyclones" of the West are "tornadoes," which are whirling storms of great violence, but contracted in area. Tornadoes have been known whose greatest width did not exceed a few rods, and those which exceed several miles in width are very unusual. The ordinary storm, where the wind attains a velocity of 40 to 60 miles an hour, has nothing in common with either a cyclone or tornado. It is a straight rush of air and does not whirl at all.

Discipline.
Know you not that our business here is a warfare, and one must watch, and one go out as a spy, and one must fight? You neglect to do the bidding of the commander, and complain when he hath laid somewhat rougher than common upon you, and you mark not what, so far as in you lies, you are making the army to become, so that if all copy you, none will dig a trench, none will cast up a rampart, none will watch, none will run any risk, but each will appear worthless for warfare.—Epictetus.

Where Diamonds Come From.
In the great diamond fields of South Africa the stones are found in what are called "pipes," round or oval stems of a peculiar sort of rock, several acres in extent at the top and running down to unknown depths. Near the surface this rock, rich in iron, is disintegrated by exposure to the weather and assumes a yellowish color. The precious gems are readily extracted from the friable rock.

CLARK IN FAVOR OF CITY MANAGER

Retiring Mayor Makes Important Suggestions In Farewell Address

Grant V. Clark presided as mayor for the last time at the adjourned April meeting of the city council Monday night. In his farewell address to the council Mr. Clark said:

"As this is the last council meeting over which I am to preside I suppose it is not out of place that I make a few remarks. First of all I wish to express very hearty appreciation of the fine courtesies that have been shown me by you gentlemen. It is very important that there should be harmony between the city council and the mayor. I feel that I have had your cooperation in a very marked degree. You, by your fine cooperation, have enabled me to carry out things that were near to my heart. I wish to thank you for this cooperation. All in all it has been a very pleasant experience to have had the honor of presiding over this body.

"I have gained some impressions during my tenure of office, and I think it will not be out of place to disclose some of them. Chief among them is the feeling that the aldermanic system of government is not the ideal system. Nor am I convinced that the Commission form of government is ideal. Of late a number of Wisconsin cities after having given the commission form of government a good trial have voted to go back to the aldermanic form of government. It is my own conviction that a modified form of the City Manager plan will work out most satisfactorily. Let us hope that the time may come when additional legislation shall give Wisconsin cities the privilege of trying out this plan. This plan may be grafted on the present plan. Cities may be permitted to retain both the mayor and the council, and they in turn select a city manager who through special training and long practical experience shall be fitted to render a high degree of efficiency in conducting the various departments of municipal government. One of the greatest faults with the present system of city government is that the various departments are not co-ordinated. And because of this there is some friction between them. There is also a failure to center authority, and thus, to locate responsibility. With the whole matter of public construction turned over to one thoroughly competent man, who must make good or lose his job, we should doubtless get better results by eliminating waste and delay.

"However, as we are not permitted by law to employ a city manager I think the next best thing would be to secure a city engineer of long and successful experience, especially in street construction, and other forms of construction, and give him as large a freedom as is possible under the present laws, and hold him responsible for practical results. Even though you have to double the salary of that officer I feel that it would be real economy in the end. Heavy expenditures should be made in the next few years and costly blunders should be avoided. The laying of the proposed trunk sewer is such an important piece of work that no novice should be entrusted with the oversight of that work. Then too, all the macadam streets, especially in the business part of the city should be rebuilt. This is a work so pressing and of such vital importance that only a man of actual experience should tackle the job. All of this work could very properly be left with a city engineer, who has had success in taking personal charge of such construction work in the past. I believe that portions of Brown street and Stevens street and Davenport street should be rebuilt this season, and I hope that if the incoming administration should advocate such public improvements you gentlemen who are to sit on the incoming council will cooperate most heartily with the mayor in effecting these improvements."

VLIAHAKIS SOLE OWNER

William Vlahakis and Ernest Stathakis, who in November, 1916, established the Rhinelander Cafe at 18 S. Brown street and have since conducted the business, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Vlahakis remains as sole proprietor.

Mr. Stathakis will open a cafe in some larger city, but has not yet decided where. He may locate in the south. He has made a number of friends during his residence here who wish him future success.

Mr. Vlahakis will continue to give patrons of the Rhinelander Cafe the same excellent service as in the past. He is a first class restaurant man.

FIRST YEAR CASUALTIES

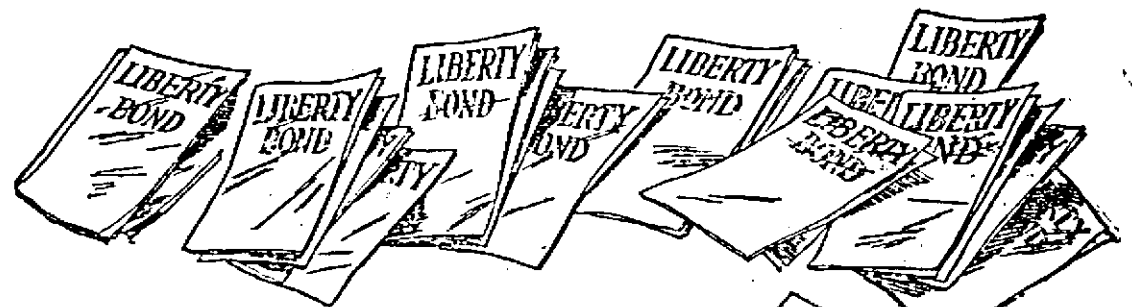

United States army casualties during the first year of this country's participation in the war are as follows:

Killed in action	183
Lost at sea	337
Died of wounds	53
Died of disease	793
Suicide, unknown causes	39
Wounded	767
Captured	22

The case of Peter Bernhard of Woodruff, charged with neglecting to send his daughter to school, was continued in municipal court Monday for one month.

You Have Until April 27 to Buy Liberty Bonds.

You are asked to spend wisely—to buy only the things honestly needed to maintain your health and efficiency. This is intelligent thrift. The Government asks it of you as a war measure :

Bonds Are Not A Burden, But A Blessing

Thrift requires the exercise of restraint and self-denial—qualities without which you cannot achieve the success in life which it is your ambition to achieve and for the lack of which you are likely to suffer in later years.

The money you acquire by thrift you are asked to loan—not give—to your country. It will come back to you when you may need it far more than you do now, and you will be paid interest for its use.

This war is a frightful thing, but it may prove of inestimable benefit to you, if it teaches you the good habit of thrift.

SIXTEEN MEN ON MAY DRAFT CALL

Oneida county will furnish another quota of registrants on May 1 or shortly thereafter. A report from Madison states that sixteen men will answer the call from this county. The local exemption board has just received official notice of the call. The men will entrain after May 1 in a five day period, for Columbus Barracks, Ohio. In filling the call men should be inducted out of Class A in sequence of order numbers. Provisions relating to men engaged in agriculture, whereby they are exempted, should be followed. The number of men called should be actually entrained.

SINGS SONG AT AGE OF 100 YEARS

Just to show her many friends that one may be young at the ripe old age of 100, Mrs. Orile DuBois sang a song at a reception in her honor at the Hickey house last Thursday evening, and sang it well.

The event was one long to be remembered by the sixty-five guests who were present. "500" was played during the evening and a fine two-course luncheon was served. The birthday cake which was cut before the guests departed, each carrying a slice as a memento, bore 100 candles of red, white and blue forming an American flag which was very pretty. Mrs. DuBois was presented with a purse by her guests besides other gifts in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. DuBois was born on the 29th of March, 1918, at Montreal, Canada. She has made her home the past thirty years with her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Hickey in this city. She has living 5 children, 33 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren. — Tomahawk Leader.

THE "DOCTOR" PLEADS GUILTY

In municipal court Friday "Doctor" Wendell Smith pleaded guilty to a charge of forgery and he was held for trial in circuit court. Bonds of $1000 have not been furnished.

The "doctor", it is said, has expressed a desire to appear before Judge A. H. Reid and receive sentence. Rumor has it that the interior of a penal institution will be nothing new for him.

Grant V. Clark delivered an address at a patriotic meeting in Ladysmith Sunday.

Mrs. Dr. Baker of Hawkins spent Sunday at the Barber home, 134 S. Oneida avenue.

Mrs. V. Venne is in St. Mary's hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Mel Sweet has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Leu in Minneapolis.

Chas. Rand of New London spent last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rand on Carr street.

J. R. Bentley, assessor of incomes, is in Wausau on official business today.

Mrs. J. J. Nick and children are guests of the Fluegel family in Superior.

The Oneida Orchestra will furnish music for a dance in Woodruff Friday night.

Mrs. Mary Fenelon was taken to St. Mary's hospital today and will submit to an operation.

The Oneida Orchestra will play at a matinee party at the high school gym tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Oscar Knudson returned Tuesday night from a short visit with her husband at White Lake.

Walter Jolitz, son of August Jolitz, painfully injured his foot a few days ago when a block of wood fell on it.

Mrs. D. F. Recker and Lois and Mrs. M. J. Chassee are expected home Saturday from California where they spent the winter.

Miss Anna McIntosh resumed her studies at the high school Monday after being laid up several days with an attack of pleurisy.

George DeByle is carrying his neck in a sling as the result of a boil. George says all the good things seem to come his way.

The L. A. A. O. H. will entertain the national president at the school hall Tuesday evening April 23. All members are requested to be present.

George Sullivan, formerly clerk at the Hotel Oneida, is now behind the desk at the Hotel Butterfield in Antigo.

Oscar Bergstrom and family of White Lake were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Knudson. They drove here in their car and Mr. Knudson accompanied them.

A little son arrived Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reed in Owatonna, Minn. Mrs. Reed will be remembered as Miss Margaret Charrey, a former popular Oneida county teacher.

L. M. Cohen, proprietor of the Iowa Market, is breaking ground on his farm on the Wisconsin river near Wildwood. He says he is going to show Oneida soil tillers how they farm in Iowa.

John Jennings of Sault Ste. Marie is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Jennings. His wife has been here for several weeks, having been called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. M. Sullivan.

At the card party at the residence of Mrs. John Pecor Saturday afternoon and night over $16 was netted for the Red Cross. Thursday afternoon Mrs. K. Boufflou gave a party for the benefit of the Red Cross at which twelve dollars was received.

Fred Frykland, of Duluth, interviewed our merchants last Friday in his capacity as a traveling salesman—and incidentally circulated among old Bruce and Atlanta friends Mrs. Frykland has been out in Washington the past year, but he expects her to return within a short time. They will make their home at Rhineland.—Bruce News-Letter.

Mrs. George Porter, who is known to her innumerable friends in this city as Grandma Porter, witnessed the children's patriotic parade Monday noon from an automobile. Mrs. Porter for nearly two years has been afflicted with paralysis and during that time has been confined to her home. The parade was immensely enjoyed by her. Grandma Porter is a great favorite of little folks and a large number of the children in the procession were her personal friends.

"Sandy" Brown returned to Mercer Saturday after a short visit in this city. "Sandy," who is a cook of more or less fame, prepares the chow for the "Jacks" at Collins' Camp 2. The crew passed through the winter without any casualties, which speaks well for "Sandy's" chuck.

Rhineland Grange met with Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Reik Friday evening. After meeting Mr. Reik favored the patrons with some fine music after which a delicious lunch was served through the kindness of Mrs. Reik. Next meeting will be held May 3, at the home of Miss Eva Snyder 104 E. King St.

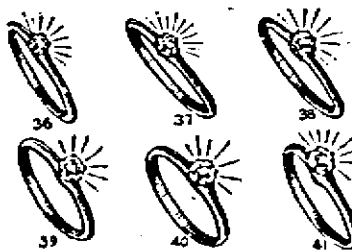

Rev. and Mrs. Richard Evans are expected home some time this week from their sojourn of several weeks in California and other western states. It is expected they will be back in time so that Rev. Evans can fill the Methodist pulpit next Sunday morning, and a large audience will no doubt be out to greet him and Mrs. Evans on their return.—Wausau Pilot.

Hazel Crawford and her orchestra furnished music for the "Married Folks" party at Gilligan's hall Wednesday evening.

Jane, the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Stone, is numbered among the sick.

D. R. Ahlman, of Johnson's Electric Shop, was in Wausau this week.

After a fight, and maybe a fight, a small chew of Real Gravely braces him up for another trip

Someone Sent Him a pouch of Real GRAVELY Chewing Plug

Tobacco is about the only comfort the soldier has—and no chance to smoke on duty! But a satisfying chew of Real Gravely Plug—he can enjoy that even in a shell hole in No Man's Land.

Give any man a chew of Real Gravely Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best! Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravely, because a small chew of it lasts a long while.

If you smoke a pipe, slice Gravely with your knife and add a little to your smoking tobacco. It will give flavor—improve your smoke.

SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELY

Dealers all around here carry it in 10c pouches. A 3c. stamp will put it into his hands in any Training Camp or Seaport of the U. S. A. Even "over there" a 3c. stamp will take it to him. Your dealer will supply envelope and give you official directions how to address it.

"Rats Undermine Health"

Is there a more detestable creature than the rat? Always a sneak thief, robbing farmers of the full profit of their labor and of the poor of their bread, it is now an ally of the Kaiser. Rats are in league with their human brothers who have been guilty of burning granaries and storehouses for the purpose of embarrassing the government in the prosecution of our present righteous war.

Of course, the rat plunders to live, but the world is not large enough to support both rats and mankind as the latter are entitled to be supported. Therefore, the rat must go. Its death sentence was pronounced when its agency is spreading, the plague was proved beyond the shadow of a doubt. The great epidemic of plague in the middle ages destroyed the lives of one-fourth of all the people of Europe. Rats did that! Mankind owes nothing to rats which has not been paid for a thousand fold. Now the United States Government is after them for destroying $2,000,000 worth of grain each year.

Some states still pay bounties for the killing of wolves and foxes. Rats are capable of more harm and are altogether much more destructive than wolves. The difference is that the wolf is a bold robber while the rat is a sneak both in its killings and thievery.

It would not be strange if an epidemic of plague should follow the closing of the present war. Rats have flourished in the war zone where they are bold enough to fight the soldiers. If a few of them should be infested with plague, the disease might spread rapidly to the rest and then to the soldiers. It takes no great stretch of the imagination to conceive of the manner in which the dread disease could be brought to this country in spite of the vigilance of federal health officers. If it should get in we would destroy the rats. That was how the United States Public Health Service controlled the last epidemic in California. But why should we wait to be hit? Why not strike first? Why not strike for the sake of our pocketbooks, for the sake of food for the allies, for the protection of our own lives and those of our children?

Ask yourself—you who are now reading this—if, through laziness, carelessness, or indifference, you are giving aid and comfort to the enemy, the rat, the ally of the Kaiser and the junker. If so, join the allies and help your country win the war by starving, trapping, and poisoning rats.

EAT POTATOES!

We need to raise potatoes and to sell potatoes, but most of all we need to eat potatoes.

The more potatoes we eat, the less bread we shall need, and the more wheat we shall be able to send to our armies and allies. Our supply of wheat was never lower and every pound we can possibly spare is needed by our soldiers and our allies.

If you will not eat potatoes now, when they are cheap and plentiful, and when the grower is in danger of actual loss on his crop, what right will you have to complain about potato prices next year, when the grower turns to some other crop in order to make up his losses?

A big potato crop is the best insurance against hunger and famine.

The Irish earned the name of the fighting people of the world—and the Irish diet has often been milk and potatoes.

We cannot ship potatoes in quantity, but we can ship wheat. Let us eat our potatoes at home and ship our wheat to the men abroad. Every potato we eat releases wheat for the boys in France.

Eat potatoes. The supply is plentiful, the price reasonable. Eating potatoes will be the means of saving bread.

NO FURLOUGHHS FOR SOLDIERS

Furloughs will not be granted to National army men who want to come home to aid in farm work. Notice to this effect has been received by the Local Board of Exemption from the office of Governor E. L. Philipp. The governor is advised by the adjutant general that the granting of furloughs for the purpose of engaging in agricultural pursuits is contrary to the policy of the war department. (Legislation is now pending which would change this policy and provide for that contingency.)

The local board has been advised that notification of any change in the rulings will come immediately after a change in the government policy has been effected.

The Governor in his statement concludes that the men of Class 1, who are physically qualified for service would do their country good if they continued farming. If that is their occupation.

NATURE CURES, THE DOCTOR TAKES THE FEE

There is an old saying that "Nature cures, the doctor takes the fee," but as everyone knows you can help Nature very much and thereby enable it to effect a cure in much less time than is usually required. This is particularly true of colds. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy relieves the lungs, liquefies the tough mucus and aids in its expectoration, allays the cough and aids Nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.

EAGLE RIVER

(Eagle River Review)

A new business firm that began operations in Eagle River this week is incorporated and will be known as the Eagle River Land Company. Organized with a paid in capital of $10,000, the president is John Benson, and H. E. Slattery, Sec'y., and business manager. They will devote their main energies to the settling and development of a large area of No. 1 farm land near Range Line lake, a district that previously has not received much notice in that respect. As a starter they negotiated two sales the first of the week to parties who are well pleased with their purchases.

In a letter to the Review, C. H. Kamke, long a resident of Arbor Vitae, announces the removal of himself and family to Wausau, where they will reside. Mr. Kamke sold his farm at Arbor Vitae last winter and will go to Wausau to enjoy a rest from a long and active business career in what was once the leading mill town of Vilas county.

N. A. Colman was an arrival from his home at Portland, Ore., Wednesday to spend a month or so looking after his property interests here, one being the development of his new farm near Lake Emogene.

J. E. Sullivan left Monday on a cruising trip to upper Michigan for the Sanborn Co. Among his baggage was included a pair of snow shoes. What do you know about that for climate conditions?

A message received Tuesday by Mart Irzel, announced the death of Andrew Regenfuss at Marshfield, where he was taken two weeks ago to receive medical attention. Mr. Regenfuss entered the employ of Mr. Irzel in 1893, when 21 years of age, and remained with him until seven years ago, when he went to Phelps where he had been in business since. Taken ill about six months ago he continued to grow worse until the end, although his condition was not deemed so serious until recently. A man of exceptional physique that caused him to be generally known as "Big Andrew," his well known characteristics of friendliness had generally, made him a wide circle of friends who will greatly miss him in Eagle River and Phelps where he spent so many years.

CONSTIPATION AND INDIGESTION

These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out a good part of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person.

Believing that few persons are acquainted with the espionage law, passed by the Wisconsin legislature, and in effect March 8, the Wisconsin Loyal Legion has sent out copies of the act to every one of the presidents of chapters in the state, urging officers to bring it before their members, and see that it is carefully carried out.

The act is under chapter 13 of Wisconsin laws of 1918, and provides that upon conviction thereof one shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100, nor more than $1,000, or imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months or not more than a year, or both such fine and imprisonment.

The law covers practically every act that would interfere with the war work, but in force only during the period of the present war.

Have you noticed that the women who have system in their work almost invariably appear to have the least to do?

FOR THE INVALID'S TRAY.

For the whimsical palate of an invalid a dainty is more acceptable, whatever it may be, if served in some unusual form.

For the busy housewife who has but one pair of hands to perform all duties, time is a most valuable asset, and she has little for frills. However a few minutes spent in garnishing and arranging a dish will make all the difference between receiving and eating it with anticipation, or refusing it altogether.

So many fancy things may be done with ordinary things in the home, for example, a whole set of dishes may be made from a few lemons. Cut the lemon that has a good projection for a spout into a cream pitcher, cut a ring of rind for the handle, scoop out the pulp and voilà a pitcher, not for cream, but for various jellies.

Put on two little handles and have a sugar bowl, the half of a lemon a little smaller with one handle will be a cup. Pigs, using toothpicks for legs, may be made, eyes of black pins, delighting the heart of a child. With dates and figs, turtles, with peanuts various figures, even a whole man may be made by using toothpicks and cork.

Fruit Cream.—Beat the white of an egg, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, and half a glass of grape jelly until it is stiff enough to stand. Serve in sherbet cups with a bit of whipped cream on top.

Rice Cream.—Blend a tablespoonful of rice flour with cold milk, add it to a pint of scalding milk, a pinch of salt and three tablespoonfuls of sugar, cook until well done. Pour out into a pretty dish and serve with cream and more sugar if desired. An egg dropped into a ramekin with a tablespoonful of cream, set in the oven in water and baked just long enough to set the egg, is delicious when seasoned with a dash of salt and paprika.

In all homes there are some choice bits of china, glass and silver, which will be used to advantage on the invalid's tray. Colored foods, like jellies and gelatin desserts look well in glass.

Nellie Maxwell

Great Writers Lazy.

Shelley had an indolent vein. He was very fond of the water, and many of his finest poems were composed as he idled at his ease in a boat. He made the best of his short life, however, and that cannot be said for Coleridge, who seemed to be afflicted with that lack of will to work which some people call laziness. He had one of the greatest minds, but he left even his finest poems mere fragments.

Length of Lobsters.

Whatever may be the excellent intent of the bill filed in the Massachusetts legislature reducing the length of lobsters that may be legally taken from 9 to 8 inches, the measure might well be entitled a bill to further the extermination of the lobster. The lobster is rapidly disappearing, partly, at any rate, because young and immature specimens are permitted by law to be caught. The present 9 inches in this state is shorter than the Maine law allows—and that is none too long.—Boston Post.

Always Rainfall With Cyclone.

Cyclones are always accompanied with rain, generally so violent as to be called a "cloud-burst." When the air is completely saturated with moisture, and a "whirl" is formed, the heated stratum is not carried to so great a height. The upward currents being strong, a vast mass of partially condensed vapor is accumulated in the upper end of the funnel, so to speak, until it finally breaks off its own weight.

GROCERS HELP IN 50-50 PLAN

SIGN PLEDGE TO CARRY OUT
FOOD ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM.

POST CARDS IN STORES.

Explain New Wheat Ruling to Thousands of Customers—Insures Greater Food Saving.

Grocers of the nation have accepted enthusiastically the 50-50 basis for the purchase of wheat flour and are doing their utmost to explain the new regulation to the housewife. This ruling by the U. S. Food Administration requires each purchaser of wheat flour to buy one pound of cereal substitute, one kind or assorted, for every pound of wheat flour. It was necessary to restrict the use of wheat flour in order that the allies and our fighting forces abroad might be assured of an adequate supply of wheat to meet their vital needs. This supply must come from our savings because we have already sent our normal surplus.

Wheat saving pledge cards were forwarded by the Food Administration to all retail food merchants, and these are being signed and posted in stores throughout the country. This card states, "We pledge ourselves loyally to carry out the Food Administration program. In accordance with this order we will not sell any wheat flour except where the purchaser buys an equal weight of one or more of the following, a greater use of which in the home will save wheat:

"Cornmeal, corn flour, edible corn starch, hominy, corn grits, barley flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soy bean flour, feterita flour and maca, rice, rice flour, oatmeal, rolled oats and buckwheat flour."

Some confusion has resulted on the part of the consumer in construing this "50-50" ruling to mean that an equal amount in value of substitutes must be purchased with wheat flour. This is a mistaken idea. The ruling states that the consumer in purchasing flour shall "buy at the same time an equal weight of other cereals."

One exception to this ruling is concerning Graham flour and whole wheat flour, which may be sold at the ratio of three pounds to five pounds of wheat flour. This provision is made because approximately 25 per cent. more of the wheat berry is used in the manufacture of these flours than standard wheat flour.

Another exception is that concerning mixed flours containing less than 50 per cent. of wheat flour, which may be sold without substitutes. Retailers, however, are forbidden to sell mixed flours containing more than 50 per cent. of wheat flour to any person unless the amount of wheat flour substitutes sold is sufficient to make the total amount of substitutes, including those mixed in flours, equal to the total amount in wheat flour in the mixed flour. For instance, if any mixed flour is purchased containing 60 per cent. wheat flour and 40 per cent. substitutes it is necessary that an additional 20 per cent. of substitutes be purchased. This brings it to the basis of one pound of substitutes for each pound of wheat flour.

A special exemption may be granted upon application in the case of specially prepared infants' and invalids' food containing flour where the necessity is shown.

Some misunderstanding seems to exist on the part of consumers in assuming that with the purchase of wheat flour one must confine the additional 50 per cent. purchase to one of the substitutes. This is not the case. One may select from the entire range of substitutes a sufficient amount of each to bring the total weight of all substitutes equal to the weight of the wheat flour purchased. For instance, if a purchase of 24 pounds of wheat flour is made a range of substitutes may be selected as follows:

Cornmeal, 8 pounds; corn grits, 4 pounds; rice, 4 pounds; buckwheat, 2 pounds; corn starch, 1 pound; hominy, 2 pounds; rolled oats, 3 pounds.

These substitutes may be used in the following manner:

Cornmeal, 8 Pounds.—Corn bread, no flour; corn muffins or spoon bread, one-fourth flour or one-third rice or one-third hominy; 20 per cent. substitutes in whole bread.

Corn Starch, 1 Pound.—Thickening gravy, making custard, one-third substitute in cake.

Corn Grits, 4 Pounds.—Fried like mush, used with meal in making corn bread.

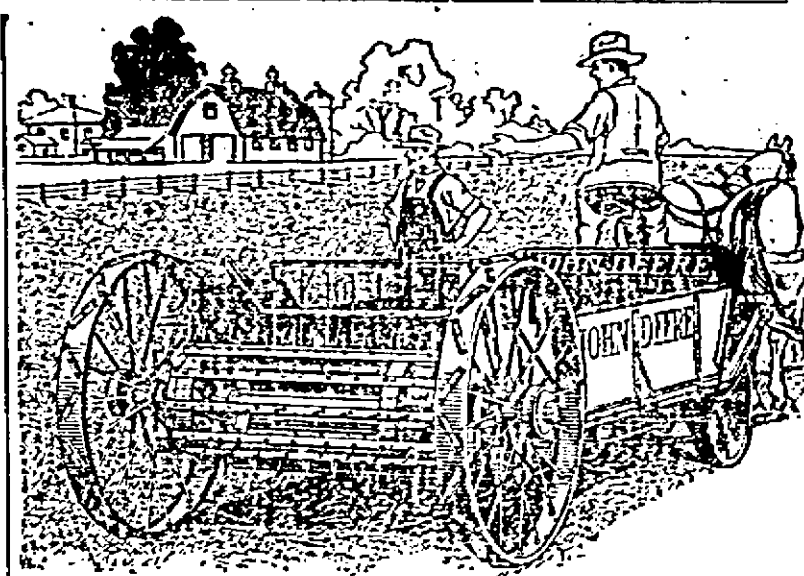

Roller Oats, 3 Pounds.—One-fourth to one-third substitutes in bread, one-half substitute in muffins; breakfast porridge, use freely; oatmeal cookies, oatmeal soup.

Buckwheat Flour, 2 Pounds.—One-fourth substitute in bread, buckwheat cakes.

Hominy, 2 Pounds.—Baked for dinner, baked for dinner, with cheese sauce.

Rice, 4 Pounds.—One-fourth substitute in wheat bread, one-third substitute in corn bread, boiled for dinner (a bread cut), as a breakfast food, to thicken soups, rice pudding instead of cake or pie, rice batter cakes.

Several grocers have stated that their customers who strictly observe the 11 wheatless meals each week find it necessary to buy substitutes in addition to those ordered under the 50-50 plan.

This Kind of Spreading Means Bigger, Better Crops

Spreading Manure with the John Deere Spreader means extra bushels—extra tons—extra profits at harvest time. Makes it possible to fertilize more acres more evenly with the same amount of manure—no over-fertilized or under-fertilized spots; every part of the land is fertilized alike, heavy or light, to meet the soil or crop conditions.

By using a John Deere Spreader, it is easier to get the manure on the land when it will get the best results. It's economy to spread your manure with a Revolving Rake Insures even spreading. No bunching or choking. Every foot of ground is covered—heavy or light—to meet field conditions. Wide-spread attachment can be furnished.

Straw-Spreading Attachment makes the John Deere a two-in-one machine. Only one man required to operate it. A thirty-minute job to take attachment off spreader. Does perfect work in all kinds of straw.

When in town next time, ask for this Spreader Book.

Tells all about manure, how and when to spread it. Shows how spreading methods affect the value of manure. It's a real treatise on manure. Worth money to you. It also illustrates and describes the John Deere Spreader.

Winsome Childhood.

The growing child frankly finds himself the most interesting person in the world, and we forgive him to some extent and attempt to show him that he must conceal his personal liking for himself. Some of us may recall the story of the little boy who had been a delightful listener while his mother (real bore) told the neighbors of his cute little manners and ways.

They Put Him in the Copper.

In the Tudor days the poisoner was liable to be condemned to death by boiling; while under another statute, the man convicted of theft "shall have his head shaved, melted pitch poured upon it, and the feathers from a pillow shaken over it, that he may be known." After all there are advantages in living in the twentieth century!

TOWNS TO HAVE SEPARATE EXHIBITS AT COUNTY FAIRS

At our recent County Board meeting Fred Coon and Arthur Taylor, President and Secretary of our Fair, made arrangements with the County Board for a general Agricultural Exhibit from each town in the county. A booth 12x12 will be given each town wanting to make an exhibit. About $300.00 is to be distributed in cash prizes for the different town exhibits. The first prize booth will receive $35.00 and the other prizes will be arranged so that each exhibiting town will receive some part of the money. There is not a single town in the county but what ought to place an exhibit at our County Fair. This feature alone should increase the attendance and interest very materially. It must be remembered though by the different towns that none of the products put in the town exhibit can be entered in the general individual exhibit.

The following is a list of things which will be required. This does not mean that every town shall have the full requirements for probably no town can. It is just simply a basis for judging the merit of the different exhibits.

GRAIN—
Size of samples—one peck.
Wheat: One winter variety and one spring variety.
Oats: Three varieties.
Barley: One variety.
Rye: One spring variety and one winter variety.
Buckwheat: One variety.
Peas: One variety of white and one variety of green.
Beans: One sample of soy, one sample of lima, one sample of navy and one sample of any other variety.

SHEAF GRAINS—

One bundle of wheat, oats, barley, rye, buckwheat, flax and speltz. Bundle must be three inches in diameter at center band.

CORN—

Ten ears required for exhibit.
Field corn: Two varieties.
Sweet corn: One variety.
Pop corn: One variety.

POTATOES—

Five varieties chosen from the following are to be exhibited: Exhibits are to be one peck.
Rural New Yorker, Green Mountain, Burbank, Peerless, Early Ohio, Early Rose, Triumph and Irish Cobbler.

CLOVER—

Two varieties required. Samples are to be ½ peck. Choice may be made from

Medium Red Clover,
Mammoth Clover,
Alsike Clover,
Alfalfa.

GRASS SEED—

Two varieties required. Samples to be ½ peck. Choice may be made from

Red Top, Blue Grass, Timothy, Millet, Sudan Grass and Blue Joint.

OLIVER IN SHEAF—

Four varieties required.
Medium Red, Mammoth, Alsike and Alfalfa.

Bundle same as for grain.

GRASSES IN SHEAF—

Five varieties chosen from the following:

Red Top, Blue Grass, Timothy, Millet, Sudan Grass and Blue Joint.

FORAGE PLANTS—

Four varieties.
Soy Bean, Field Pea, Vetch, Corn on Stock.

STOCK VEGETABLES—

Exhibit must contain three specimens of each kind. Five kinds required.

Mangle Wurtzel, Sugar Beet, Rutabaga, Carrot, Turnip.

CULINARY VEGETABLES—

Six specimens of each of the following required:

Winter Radishes, Onions, Parsnips, Carrots, Garlic, Tomatoes, Cabbage, Cauliflower, Kohlrabi, Egg plant, Muskmelon, Squash, Pumpkin, Turnips, Beet, Rutabagas.

GREEN VEGETABLES—

Six ears sweet corn.
Two quarts of Lima beans in pod.
Two quarts of wax beans in pod.
Three stalks of celery.
Six round radishes.
Six long radishes.
Green onions.
Salsify.
Cucumbers for slicing.
Cucumbers for pickling.
Leeks.
Celeriac.
Dill.
One parsley plant.

FRUIT—

No requirements will be made to this class. Credit will be given according to the merit of the display. Canned goods not eligible.

MISCELLANEOUS—

Any products not mentioned previously can be placed in this class. Tobacco, Sunflower, Hemp and Ginseng are examples.

The following list will give the importance in the exhibit of the different classes:

Grain	125	points
Sheaf grain	50	points
Corn	100	points
Potatoes	150	points
Clover seed	25	points
Grass seed	25	points
Clover in sheaf	50	points
Grass in sheaf	50	points
Forage plants	50	points
Stock vegetable	50	points
Culinary vegetable	100	points
Green vegetable	100	points
Fruit	75	points
Miscellaneous	50	points

Persons wanting to get further information concerning this exhibit should inquire or write Arthur Taylor, Secretary, Rhinelander, Wisconsin.

The thing for each town to do now is to get busy and begin planning for their exhibit. It might be well for each town chairman to start the ball rolling by organizing their town and get committees appointed so as to get in the proper varieties in the different classes. If this part of the Fair program turns out as it should Oneida County's Fair will be the biggest and best next year it has ever been.

Sunday School at 10:00 prompt.
Morning service at 11:00. Subject: "The Supremacy of Christianity."
Epworth League at 6:45. Leader, Leslie Klug. Evening service at 7:30 when the pastor will speak on the "Tragedies and Triumphs of Life." Prayer meeting on Thursday evening at 7:30. You are cordially invited to attend these services.

It is deplorable, but nevertheless true, that there are men who think it savors of effeminacy to be seen in church. These men should awaken to the error of their ways. The really strong men, the men of the nation, are constant church goers. They rarely miss a Sunday.

On one occasion a great composer was accorded a magnificent ovation. They cheered him for fully five minutes. It was enough to turn any man's head. Then they cried for a speech. The composer faced the multitude of admirers and said: "What doth it profit a man to gain the Whole World and Lose His Own Soul?" That was all. The audience knew the deep religion of the man and grasped the significance of his remarks. They did not think this man effeminate. He was big enough to proclaim publicly his faith in God and a hereafter. It is the weak man rather than the strong man, who, while professing a belief in God, remains away from the church. If you believe in God, practice your belief by going to church. Don't delay. Start in next Sunday.

The Germans on Your Farm

OUR soldiers "over there" are doing everything in their power to hold the Germans back. If they fail what would your farm be worth?

That would depend upon the indemnity the Germans levied upon it. You are fortunate in living so many miles away, for indemnity is as nothing compared to what the Huns have already done to the farms of Belgium, Italy, Roumania, Serbia, Poland and Russia.

FACTS ABOUT WAR RISK INSURANCE

Three Classes Of Protection To Soldiers And Sailors

There has been created in the Treasury Department at Washington a Bureau, known as the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, which administers the law relating to War Risks.

This law provides for three classes of protection to the soldiers and sailors engaged in the present war and to their dependents.

The first, is family allowances, to be paid monthly to the family of every soldier or sailor actively engaged in the military or naval service. Second, Compensation for injury or disability happening to the soldier or sailor while in the line of duty, and third, life insurance purchased from the government by persons in the service.

It was the intention of Congress in enacting this law, and is the intention of the Treasury Department in administering the same, that all persons having valid claims under the law, shall receive prompt settlement of such claims without cost to them.

To this end the Legal Advisory Boards of the nation have been asked to give claimants under the law, such assistance in preparing and forwarding their claims, as may be necessary.

The members of the Legal Advisory Board of this county, constituting the entire Bar of the county, will gladly render such assistance to any and all persons having claims under the provisions of the law, without charge or compensation.

In this connection, we warn all claimants against putting their claims in the hands of the numerous "Claim Agents" who are extensively advertising their ability to secure money from the government, upon such claims.

Such agents are exploiting the law for their own benefit, and not in the interest of the claimants.

It is the duty of every patriotic citizen to notify all prospective and actual beneficiaries under law, that they can obtain all necessary legal assistance without cost by applying to any attorney in the county.

S. S. MILLER,
Chairman, Legal Advisory Board.

Halt the Hun

"No mercy will be shown! No prisoners will be taken! As the Huns, under King Attila, made a name for themselves, may the name of German be so fixed by your deeds, that no one shall ever again dare even to look at a German askance."

These are the Kaiser's own words, when on July 27, 1910, he bade farewell to his soldiers.

In the name of countless women and children who have been butchered or have met worse than death—Halt the Hun!

A LOYAL LOVE.

By EDNA LEE WATSON.

(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)

"They are mine, I believe!"

"They are mine."

The man spoke with steady cold precision. There was a sneer in his tones, a menace in his evil eyes. She met his fierce glance with unwavering men, with a diffidence and contempt that stung him to the quick—and she the bride of a month!

"I congratulate you on your powers of deceit," he almost hissed.

Adrienne Mercer raised herself to her full height.

"If you have discovered what you might have known, what the world could have told you long ago, that I loved the man who gave me these trifles before I met you, it is no revelation of deceit. I know not what baleful power you held over my poor father, dead but a week, that he drove me to wed you, because you forced him to do so. I never feigned to even respect you."

"A model wife, truly!" grated Judge Rolfe Mercer harshly.

"I am not that to you; I never will be," she returned clearly.

He could have struck that fair face in his mad rage. He could have killed Vance Orton, had he stood before him.

"Have a care!" he uttered through his set teeth. "I shall remember this fond lover of yours!"

"He never was that. No word save of friendship ever passed between us, yet I glory in saying that he had my whole heart, and never knew."

She replaced the pretty fan, a little cluster of shirvelled roses, a photograph, some invitation notes, the dead record of the one bright passage in her girlhood life, in her writing desk, whence the probing hand of her husband had unearthed them.

He came home a day later, flushed with drink and triumph.

"When you read the evening paper," he pronounced in even, but malice-freighted tones, "and recognize the sudden downfall of your idol and sole pattern of perfect manhood, Vance Orton, you will perhaps comprehend that I have not boasted vainly of my power."

Adrienne read the account of the descent on a gambling house while its inmates were engaged in a riotous fracas. There was the name of the man she loved. The judge before whom he and others had been brought had sentenced three of them, including Orton, to six months in the city bridge-well.

Adrienne then comprehended the full, despicable meanness of the man she had wedded. Before the week was out she had summarily left him. She had means of her own and sought a distant seclusion. Then began the downward descent of Rolfe Mercer, mercenary judge and crooked politician. He was ousted from his judicial position for accepting a bribe. Lower and lower he sank, fortune and influence gone, until he became a common drunkard and vagabond.

Vance Orton, after his unjust sentence, left the city and began a new life in a border town in Utah. He was a natural leader among men, and became such in the community. He was mayor, judge, and friend of everybody, and idolized by the rough miners of the district for his fairness.

One day a ragged, bloated, terrified wretch was brought before him, protected from the vengeance of half a dozen halfbreeds who sought to get at him as he was brought into the courtroom. At once Orton recognized him.

One of the Indians was shouting out the cause of the arrest. Rolfe Mercer had become a common thief and tramp, had visited the hut where his mother lived, had nearly choked her to death, forcing from her the few coins she possessed. The prisoner covered like the craven he was, as he recognized the man who had the power to retaliate in full for past injustice.

Suddenly, however, the son of the Indian woman leaped forward, a naked blade in his hand. Before the officers could prevent him he had plunged the knife into the side of Mercer, had leaped through an open window and was gone.

"Care for the man in every way you can," ordered Orton. "His wife was a friend of my friends in the long ago." But Mercer was beyond the power of human aid.

It was when he was dead that an officer brought to Orton some papers found in his clothing. One of these was of peculiar interest to Orton. For the first time he knew that husband and wife had been parted for years. The document found was a letter addressed to a lawyer in a distant city. It told him that the writer, Mercer, was destitute and ill. The unseen misadventure pleaded with the lawyer to influence his client, his wife, to assist him in his extremity.

"I am going East for a few weeks," Orton told his secretary, the day after Mercer had been decently buried. All those years the remembrance of Adrienne had been vivid in his mind. He longed to see her once again.

His pretense for visiting the lawyer was that he wished to inform Mrs. Mercer of her husband's death. It was in the office of the lawyer that he learned of the separation of wife and husband, and knew that Adrienne had never swerved from her regard and esteem for himself. The next day she sent for him.

Truth dwelt in the hearts of both. Their paths joined once more, and the sunlight of an undying love drove away all those dark shadows of the past.

SOME GOOD ADVICE

"Don't think too much of your own methods. Watch other people's ways and learn from them." This is good advice, especially when bilious or constipated. You will find many people who use Chamberlain's Tablets for these ailments with the best results, and will do well to follow their example.

SUFFERING FROM COLD

If you shiver in frosty weather, if you have cold hands and feet, if colds are stubborn and frequent, then your blood may be thin and impoverished.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

has been correcting this condition for nearly fifty years. It possesses rare powers for creating natural body warmth, for charging summer blood with winter richness and strengthening both throat and lungs.

The Norwegian cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which makes it pure and palatable.

3RD Liberty Loan Bonds

"What doth it profit a man, if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

We may raise great crops and we may become enormously rich, but what will our farms be worth if our armies are defeated and our women and children are driven into captivity as the women and children of the farmers of Belgium have been.

Horrible to contemplate—but a possibility.

We must work on the farm to feed our boys "over there." But we must put every bit of the profit we gain from the farm into Third Liberty Loan Bonds that our government may buy our wheat. This is not a sacrifice, as Uncle Sam returns every bit of the money with interest.

Indolent Genius.

Indolence has produced a good many works of genius. James Thomson not only wrote his famous "Seasons," but also a very characteristic poem called "The Castle of Indolence." He was himself one of the most indolent of men. It is said that he was too lazy to stretch out a hand to pick a peach from the wall, but simply stopped and pecked at it where it hung. But whether that is a libel or the truth, it is certain that most of his poetry was composed in a recumbent position. He always wrote best in bed!

Great Soldiers of Small Physique.

Military greatness seems to arrive often to the short. It is hard to think of a gigantic general of first-class genius; while military history is peopled by fine strategists and tacticians of diminutive size or poor physique. Alexander, Caesar and Napoleon were all little men. William III never went through a battle without paroxysms of coughing. Luxemburg, who beat him again and again, was a dwarfish hunchback. Melike was a living skeleton, who never expected to survive the rigors of 1870.

MAYOR SUTLIFF ENTERS OFFICE

A. C. Danielson President Of Council—Committees Appointed

The new council organized Tuesday evening April 16th. A. C. Danielson was chosen president. The president appointed a committee of five to escort the new Mayor S. D. Sutliff to the chair. After a few appropriate remarks, the mayor appointed a committee of three A. C. Danielson, Robert Caldwell, and Dan Noble to receive applications for city engineer and superintendent of water works to report at the next meeting.

P. Johnston was retained as custodian of the City Hall at $80.00 per month.

A new dog ordinance was introduced, accepted and ordered published. This will be printed in the papers next week.

The only change in the council is Ray LaSalle in place of Al Hafner in the fourth ward, and Wm. Gilligan, Sr., in place of Wm. Gilligan, Jr., in the fifth.

The following committees were appointed:

Committee on Ordinance, Dan W. Noble, A. C. Danielson and Robt. Caldwell.

Committee on Licenses, N. Pecor, Robt. Caldwell and Dan Noble.

Committee on Fire Department, Ray LaSalle, Wm. Gilligan, Sr., and Thos. Wight.

Committee on Water Works, A. C. Danielson, Frank Pecor and Joe Skubal.

Committee on Printing, John Strangstad, Ray LaSalle, and H. S. Fletcher.

Committee on City Buildings, Wm. Gilligan, Sr., John Strangstad, and Thos. Wight.

Committee on City Affairs, Olaf Goldstrand, N. Pecor, and Jos. Skubal.

Purchasing Committee, Water Works Department, A. C. Danielson; Fire Department, Ray LaSalle. All other departments, Dan Noble.

Member of Board of Public Works, A. C. Danielson.

Andrew Olson was appointed to take the place of Gus Swedberg on the cemetery commission, and James O'Melia, Sr., was appointed to take the place of Mike McDermott on the park commission.

George Porter Chas. H. Ball and M. H. Raymond were re-appointed School Commissioners.

Give Children Toys That Teach.

Toys which develop the imagination are better than intricate mechanical toys and elaborately dressed dolls. Next to a ball, the very best plaything is a set of blocks, which is capable of being transformed into anything desired, from a train of cars to a pigeon house. Give a boy of five a hammer, some nails and a few pieces of wood and see what he can make—the results are often surprising. Children love to create, and the toy which they have made themselves will give a more lasting pleasure than the usual elaborate plaything bought readymade.

Egyptian Reed Pipes.

Specimens of Egyptian reed pipes, some of them more than 3,000 years old, have found their way into the museums. In them are, perhaps, to be found the secrets of those scales which are all that survive of a musical art two thousand for history. One writer assumes that the instinct for harmonious proportions and symmetry possessed by primitive man led him to place the holes at equal distances along his reed pipe. Thus a system of scales came into being quite naturally by purely mechanical means.

Two Kinds.

There is a place in the world for reformers. Reformers are the gentlemen who created our great Declaration of Independence, and the Constitution of the United States. Bless them, we say. At the same time there should be more positive reformers and fewer negative reformers, the latter being well-meaning persons who are always against something and not for anything.—Atchison Globe.

Help In Fighting Mosquitoes.

In fighting the mosquito pest it is well to remember that sallow stagnant pools may often be eliminated through planting of eucalypts, either in or about such pools. These are very thirsty trees and will drink up and keep dry very considerable areas after the trees have attained some size. Swamps in Italy and France have been reclaimed through use of eucalypts.

Can Only Be Sure of Today.

Today is your day and mine; the only day we have; the day in which we play our part. What our part may signify in the great whole we may not understand, but we are here to play it, and now is our time. . . . It is a part of love, not cynicism. It is for us to express love in terms of human helpfulness. This we know, for we have learned from sad experience that any other source of life leads toward decay and waste.—David Starr Jordan.

Excuses of Little Value.

The world does not want men who offer excuses in place of accomplishment. Often it is compelled to accept excuses. Often it experiences genuine sorrow for the man who, instead of succeeding, brings back a satisfactory excuse for failure. But when the time for advancement comes, the man who is pushed forward is he who has done the work, who has not offered hard-luck stories in place of successful effort. In him confidence can be placed.

Cannot Grow Coffee in Europe. Attempts were made by the Dutch to introduce coffee cultivation in Europe, but without success, as the climatic conditions were not favorable. A number of plants were raised in the hothouses of the botanical gardens at Amsterdam, and the mayor of that city sent some of these plants as a present to King Louis XIV of France, who had them cared for in the hothouses of the "Jardine des Plantes" in Paris, where they yielded several crops.

How to Go Up Stairs.

How do you go upstairs? With your body bent over? And clinging to the banister? That isn't the way to profit by stairclimbing. Going upstairs is a fine chance for body training. People who know its value in physical culture go upstairs in a prescribed way. This is how to do it: You pause lightly on the balls of your feet; you lift your chest; you inhale a good long breath; then you go up easily and quickly as if you were lifted by your chest. See! Try it.

"Land of Lanterns."

Among the Chinese there has existed for ages a passion for fireworks and lanterns. In every city, at every port and on every river and canal, as soon as night comes on, the lanterns make their appearance. They are hung out at the door of every dwelling; they swing as pendants to the angles of the pagoda; they form the fiery crown of every shop front; they cluster round the houses of the rich and light up the hovels of the poor; they are borne with the carriage of the traveler, and they swing from the yards and masts of his vessel.

Baby Natural Monopolist.

There is about the baby none of the subtle deceptiveness of the old, practiced bore who deftly turns the conversation to his own exploits and affairs. Baby simply takes off the muffler from his personal self. The entire household attention turns at once to his affairs. He monopolizes the conversation with his breathless account of his hunger or of his connection with the open safety pin—and that is all there is to it.
